

VAC132	EMPLOYABILITY ANALYTICAL SKILLS - II
Contact Hours	30 Hours
Prerequisite	Nil

Course Description

This course is a multifaceted initiative designed to enhance and optimize learner's communication practices across various platforms. This program integrates a range of strategies, tools, and techniques to foster effective communication, facilitate collaboration, and promote a cohesive information flow within the learner's area. This course is structured and comprehensive initiative designed to develop and improve individuals' aptitude across various cognitive and behavioral domains. This course incorporates a range of assessments, training modules, and activities to enhance critical thinking, problem-solving, decision-making, and other essential aptitudes required for personal and professional success.

Course Objectives

Students will be able to:

- Apply skills in real-life situations, such as academic exams, job interviews, and problem-solving scenarios.
- Recognize the importance of continuous learning and practice to maintain and further develop mental ability.
- Attentively listen to others, understand their perspectives, and respond appropriately while exhibiting techniques such as maintaining eye contact, asking clarifying questions, and paraphrasing.
- Develop skills in participating and contributing to group discussions, meetings, or presentations.
- Learn to share ideas, listen to others, build consensus, and manage conflicts to achieve common goals in collaborative settings.

Course Outcomes

On completion of this course students will be able to:

CO 1: Understand and apply the fundamental theories, models, and principles of communication.

CO 2: Develop the ability for advanced critical thinking and the ability to formulate logical arguments.

CO 3: Enhance ability to communicate effectively through spoken and written forms. It includes developing skills in public speaking, interpersonal communication, professional writing, and persuasive communication.

CO 4: Emphasizes the development of teamwork and collaboration skills. It includes activities such as group projects, team-building exercises, and simulations that allow students to practice effective communication and collaboration within diverse teams.

CO 5: Apply their communication skills in different professional and personal contexts, such as interviews, networking events, customer interactions, and interpersonal relationships.

CO 6: Express ideas and information clearly and concisely through spoken language. They will develop the ability to articulate their thoughts, use appropriate vocabulary, and convey their message with clarity.
