IPR Policy Objectives

- Promote innovation and creativity in academics and research.
- Protect stakeholder interests and resolve IP conflicts.
- Ensure fair ownership, control, and revenue-sharing of IP.
- Enable technology transfer from research to industry.
- Define rights and obligations of the university, creators, and sponsors.
- Comply with IP regulatory standards.
- Enhance the university's academic reputation.
- Preserve and share IP for public benefit, supporting research growth.

Role of IPR, Legal & Ethical Matters Cell

- Guide on IP practices, ownership, commercialization, and confidentiality.
- Protect IP to encourage innovation and economic growth.
- Strengthen competitive advantage through management of intangible assets.
- Support academic freedom and a conducive research environment.
