

Report on
3rd Legal Aid and Financial Awareness Camp on
4 March, 2020

The 3rd Legal Aid and Financial Awareness Camp was organized on 4th March 2020 in village-Alipur, Gurugram by the students of School of Legal Studies and School of Commerce & Management. 15 Students interacted with the 25 villagers and tried to understand their knowledge about various schemes run by the government and difficulties faced by the beneficiaries of this scheme.

Consequently, the students made the villagers aware about the various government schemes and their rights thereto. Besides this, they also made them aware about the consumer protection rights, right to information, rights of the arrested person and free legal aid. The faculty and students also discussed about the menace of female foeticide, importance of girl child and her education, right to education, Beti Bachao- Beti Padhao, Suknya Simridhi Yojna and similar other schemes run by the government especially for women.

Students guided them in best possible manner and suggested solutions for their problems. A brief survey was conducted by the students of School of Legal Studies on Free Legal Aid. Through the survey they made the people aware about their rights of Indian citizens and on infringement, how they can avail free legal aid and procedure thereof. Villagers were very eager to know the information shared with them particularly free legal aid.

It was a great learning experience for both students as well as for teachers. Through survey students got to know the following things:

- People in the village are very well aware about the political rights i.e. voting, election etc.
- Village is free from open defecation.
- Villagers do not observe any kind of untouchability.
- Villagers are still find difficulties in availing financial schemes.

- All the children are going to schools.
- There are rare cases of female foeticide
- People are aware about dowry laws
- Women in village know much about their rights
