REPORT ON AN EXTENSION ACTIVITY: INTERCATIVE SESSION ON 'ANTI-TERRORISM DAY'

Date: 23rd May 2023

Venue: Govt. Girls School, Ghamroaj, Sohna

Event Type: Extension Activity

Mode of Activity: Offline

Target Group: Students of KRMU and Villagers of Sohna

Resource Person: Capt. Ujjain Singh and Sh. Surender Singh Raghav, Ex-Army Service Personnel, Ghamroj

Coordinators: Dr Neeraj Kumari

Organized by: NSS, K R Mangalam University, Gurugram

Introduction:

Anti-Terrorism Day is celebrated on 21 May all over India as Former Indian Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi was assassinated on this day in 1991 by a terrorist group. This day is observed to commemorate the death anniversary of Rajiv Gandhi. There is no definition of terrorism although in broadest sense, it is considered as intentionally indiscriminate violence to create terror among masses of peoples. NSS, KRMU organized an interactive session with Ex-Army Personals in Ghamroj village where 30 participants were present including NSS volunteers and Ghamroj villagers.

Objectives:

The main objectives to organize the session were:

1. To spread the awareness among the youth and wean away the youth from the terrorism and the cult of violence.
2. To unite people of all castes, religions, and sex through promotion of national harmony.

where he briefed about the motive of the session. He welcomed all the guests and gave the introduction of resource person among participants. Shri Surender Singh Raghav, President of Ex-Army Service Men discussed about the terrorism and invited Captain Ujjain Singh Raghav to proceed the session. Capt Ujjain Singh defined the motive of celebration of Anti – Terrorism Day and explained the history behind it. He told the mindset of terrorist and informed the participants that the terrorism term is not 21st century word but recently, the term has been accelerated due to political, regional and some other reasons. The September 11 attack, also known as act of 9/11, was the turning point in the history of world of terrorism. He also discussed about some preventive measures from terrorist as terrorist can be present anywhere. Some amendments were made in 2013 which dealt with economic and financial aspect of terrorism. He proceeded the session by explaining how terrorism touches all aspects of human rights.

Conclusion: The session was very interactive where students asked their queries regarding terrorism. Dr Neeraj Kumari appreciated the efforts made by Capt. Ujjain Singh. The session was concluded by giving a vote of thanks.

Outcomes:

The participants understood the historical development of the word 'Terrorism'. As youth are the future of tomorrow, they can make a big difference by contributing their countless efforts to save the country.

Future prospects:

This type of event helps a human being to fight against their fear as fear is the biggest enemy of a human being. The various steps can be taken in form of some actions to translate the feeling of danger through which a proper message can be put across all the peoples in a benefitting manner.
