Extension Activities on Gender Sensitivity: A visit to village for knowing the concerns of rural women in collaboration with NSS

Date: 19th December 2022

Venue: Radha Krishan Mandir, Lakhuwas Village

Event Type: Extension activity

Mode of Activity: Offline

Target Group: Villagers of Lakhuwas

Coordinators: Dr. Sarina and Ms. Gauri Joshi

Organized by: School of Journalism and Mass Communication in collaboration with NSS

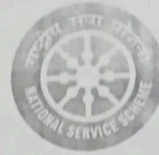

Number of Participants: 40 (Including 2 Villagers (External) and 38 Students (Internal))

On 19th December, 2022 School of Journalism and Mass Communication organised an extension activity on Gender Sensitivity: A visit to Village for understanding the concerns of Rural Women in Lakhuwas village. The faculty coordinators of the visit were Ms. Gauri Joshi and Dr. Sarina Mehra, Assistant Professor, SJMC. The students were made to visit for the purpose of knowing about the awareness levels of the rural women on their concerns and initiatives taken by Government of India. The students conducted one-to-one interviews and video interview of rural women of the village to understand their awareness level regarding their access to education, healthcare, and economic opportunities. Many of the village women assembled outside the radha krishan temple and were given a questionnaire regarding their lifestyle. Only the female students conducted the survey and the male students were recording the conversations. One of the women did mention the improvement in the mind-set regarding gender equality. Her daughter-in-law is a BA graduate and presently teaches the children in school. This visit was very enriching for the students, in which they learned a lot about rural area. The students were assigned task of observing, conducting survey through questionnaire and interviewing. The students learnt a lot from it. The event was beneficial for the students as it was an experiential learning for them, which will help them as professionals.
