Date: Thursday, 1st December 2022.

Venue: Common Place of Village Berka, Gurugram, Haryana

Event Type: Extension

Mode of Activity: Offline

Target Group: Residents of Berka village

Resource Person (if any): NA

Coordinators: Dr. Shabia Subuhi, Assistant Professor, School of Education

Ms. Vidhi Gaur, Assistant Professor, School of Education

Organized by: School of Education and NSS, K. R. Mangalam University, Gurugram

Number of Participants: 28 (student-teacher) and 94 Villagers

School of Education, K.R. Mangalam University, Gurugram in collaboration with NSS organized an awareness program on HIV / AIDS among rural people of Berka village, Haryana on 1st December 2022 on World AIDS day. The objective of the extension activity was to spread the awareness about cause and myth of spread of HIV / AIDS and disseminate valid information of the products and services among their peers and local community members. For disseminating the knowledge, the student-teachers performed Nukkad Natak and carried out an interaction activity by collecting information about the awareness and attitude towards AIDS through survey forms. They also took the pledge to be careful about spread of AIDS. It developed self-belief and self-confidence among students and made the village people aware about the myths they had in their mind about AIDS. The student-teachers empowered the local community to practice the HIV/AIDS awareness program and avoid or reduce health risks by using the inter-personal communication ability. There were 28 students at School of Education who participated in the activity. Around 94 villagers gathered to watch the program and submitted their feedback. The participants were enthusiastic with curious minds. They expressed their interest in the program by readily providing feedback and filling survey forms. The programme was coordinated by Dr. Shabia Subuhi and Ms. Vidhi Gaur, Assistant Professor, School of Education, K.R. Mangalam University, Gurugram. The event was supported by student coordinators Mokshita and Chetna from B. El. Ed. and Sonia from B. Ed. Programme.
