On the occasion of “International Girls Child Day”, School of Humanities, KRMU organized an extension activity for the girls in the nearby villages on 11th October 2022 to the nearby villages of Berka, Garhi BajidPur and Ghamroj. The objective of the event was to create digital awareness among the girls of these villages on 11th of October 2022 with the objective to give the opportunities to the rural students especially to the female students to learn about the use of simple digital equipment the students with their teachers visited to Berka Village, Rajkiya Madhyamik Vidyalaya. In the school, the event began with the basic introduction on the meaning, importance, and relevance of digital inclusion and necessity of creating a safe digital space for women. Male and female students participated in the event. The exercise included a digital media survey and questionnaire for the students to gauge at their level of digital literacy. The students learnt to use digital media responsibly and make it a safer place for women. They also learn how digital mediums can be used for educational purposes.

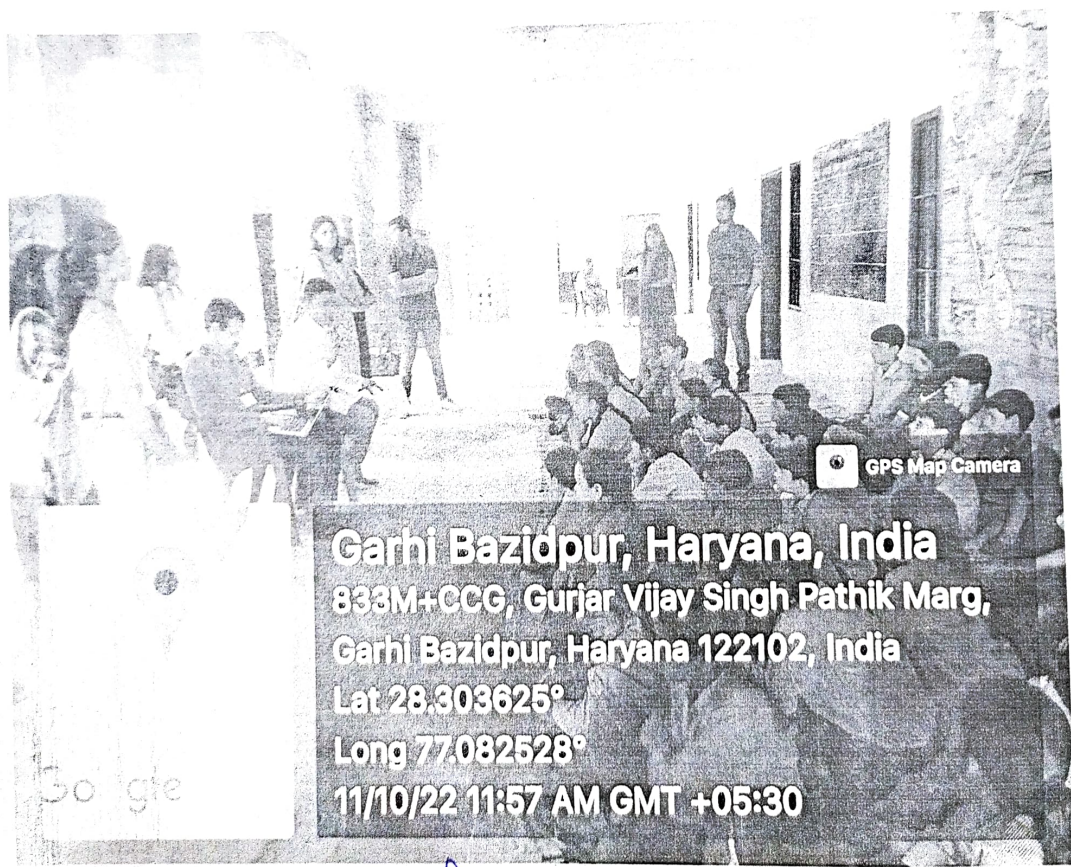

In the future, there can be regular workshops for the students. It can be a one month or one semester project to train students with digital literacy.
