DRAMA, GHAMROJ IN COLLABORATION WITH NSS

conducted by SOAD in collaboration with NSS, K. R. Mangalam University, Gurugram

Target Group: Students of Raghuvanshi Public School, Ghamroj

Speaker: Ritvik Vashishtha, Prayas Biswas and 2 students of NSS.

Coordinator: Ar. Praveen Gupta

Date and Time: Monday, 18th July 2022

Venue: Raghuvanshi Public School, Ghamroj

Introduction

Sustainability, waste and hygiene related issues are a major concern in rapidly urbanizing villages. It is important to make the inhabitants especially the children aware of these issues in urban villages that are fast transforming by forces of rapid urbanization.

Objectives

- To help in creating awareness about sustainability in students of neighboring community.
- To enhance communication skills through interaction with young students and establish a connect with them for sustainability related issues.

Content

Students of B. Arch., V year interacted with students of Grade V to VIII of Raghuvanshi Public School, Ghamroj. They started with a small singing session where they established a connect with young students who joined in actively. After the initial singing, they were given a brief introduction to health, hygiene and sustainability.

The activity was organized to help the students enhance their awareness of issues of sustainable living in their rapidly urbanizing community.

Students actively participated in the singing and were fully engaged in the learning session. In total 49 students of KRMU, NSS, Raghuvanshi School, Ghamroj students participated in this event

Conclusion

This was a highly productive session with students creating a strong connect with young students of the local community and bringing about awareness of sustainability related issues.

Further Scope

More interactive sessions of this kind should be arranged in the future to establish a stronger connection with the local community and help them steer their development in the direction of sustainability.
