Introduction:

On the 03rd May 2023, the School of Legal Studies at KR Mangalam University conducted an extension activity on Senior citizen rights and its awareness among senior citizens. The activity was aimed at imparting knowledge to the senior citizens and mentally abled residents of the Earth Seviour Foundation, Bandhwari, Gurugram, about the Rights they have received their implementation, and recent amendments as well as duties of people towards the senior citizens.

The main objective of the extension activity was to equip students to create awareness among senior citizens, women, and specially-abled people along with making our students realize the reality of society. The activity aimed at creating awareness among the present young minds about their duties towards society especially the senior citizens.

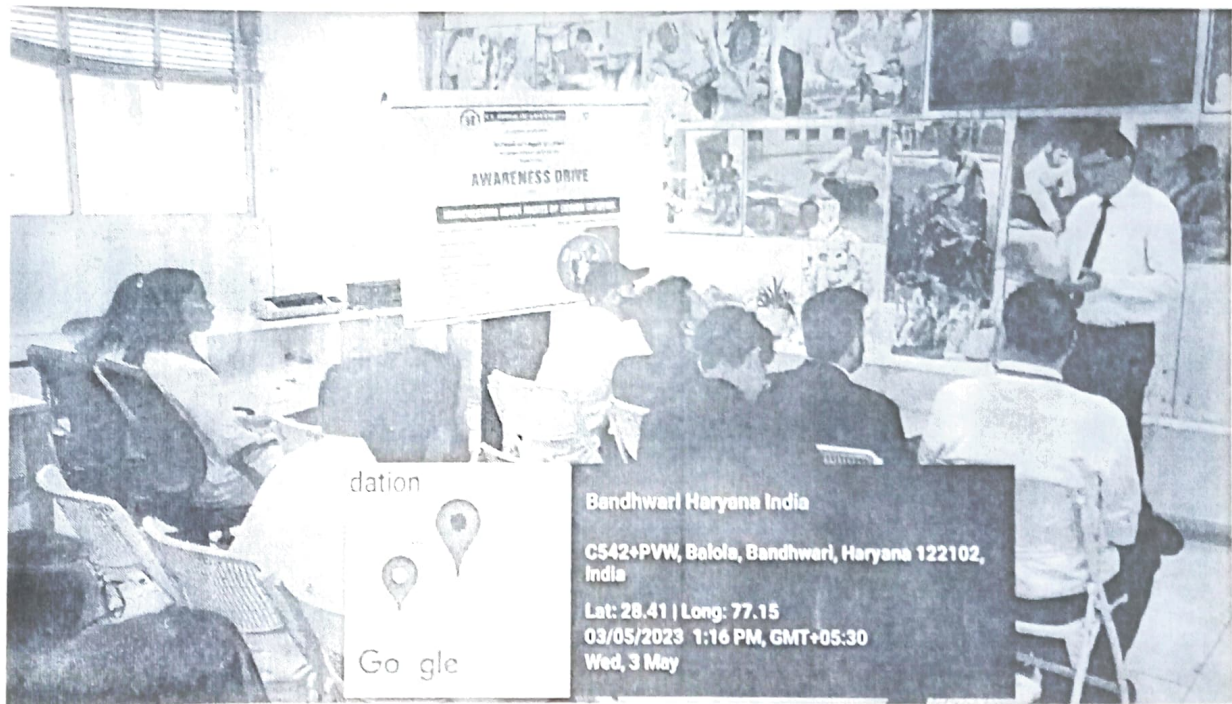

The event was conducted offline, and an associate from DLSA, Adv. Sunil Sharma addressed the students by giving a brief introduction on the senior citizens act, along with its procedure and importance. More than 48 residents of the foundation met the students, and 35 students volunteered to talk to people and make them aware of their rights. The students along with the foundation workers interacted with people to know their stories, made them aware of their rights as well as distributed essentials among them.

The extension activity was highly informative and provided the students with a nuanced
