Report on

Extension Activity at Raghuvanshi Public School Ghamroj in collaboration with NSS

Target Group: Students of Raghuvanshi Public School Ghamroj

Resource Person: Mr. Satpal Raghav

Coordinators: Ms. Yashasvi Rajawat, Ms. Sushma Mishra (SOAD)

Date: 20th May 2022

Venue: Raghuvanshi Public School, Ghamroj.

Introduction:

The extension activity was organised to give exploration of surface ornamentation on fabric to young learners for students of Raghuvanshi School, Ghamroj. Both the resource person briefed about the surface ornamentation, different techniques used on fabric and its importance in day-to-day life to enhance the product value.

Objectives:

- To familiarize students about the surface ornamentation techniques
- To understand use of patch work on fabric.
- To understand use of Kantha embroidery application.

Content:

Ms. Yashasvi and Ms. Sushma explained about the concept of surface ornamentation and how these simple techniques enhance the appearance of the fabric. They briefed various ways of ornamentation of fabric used in India with the local craft. Students are seated in a big circle where they can see the process of kantha embroidery and patch work explained by Ms. Yashasvi. All the students were excited to develop their own swatches and as per instruction given they bought their fabric, scissors and thread. Each and every student prepared vibrant swatch of patch work and kantha embroidery. In total 37 students of KRMU, NSS and Raghuvanshi School, Ghamroj participated in this event.
