Venue: Government Model Sanskriti Senior Secondary School, Nagina, Nuh, Haryana

Event Type: Extension Activity

Mode of activity: Offline

Target Group: Xth and XIIth class Students of Government Senior Secondary School k

No. of Participants : 31

Event Coordinators: Dr. Ruchika Yadav, Dr. Monika Yadav

Organized by: School of Management and Commerce (SOMC), KRMU

An extension and village outreach programme was conducted by the School of Management and Commerce at KR Mangalam University in collaboration with NSS on the scope for improvement in livelihood of the individuals belonging to Scheduled caste communities, that is, the reserved categories on 22nd November 2022 at Govt. Model Sanskriti Sr. Secondary School. The participants were exposed to a vast multitude of relevant information to motivate youth and introduce them towards various management practices by Dr. Monika Yadav that will act as an aid to upgrade their lifestyle and perspective towards life in general. There was an intriguing discussion with the help of the tale of the hare and tortoise to make them understand how life isn't always fair but whatever happens, it happens for a reason.

As the event concluded, a feedback form and questionnaire were passed among the attendants to validate their overall experience which received a satisfactory and positive response since the audience seemed emotionally as well as mentally enlightened and had understood the information that was imparted by the speakers as well as the faculty members present there.
