ABOUT THE QUIZ

Major Dhyan Chand, the Indian Hockey legend is well-known for the goal-scoring ability that made him earn three gold medals at three consecutive Olympic events, creating history. The iconic personality has served both in the Army as well as at the hockey field throughout his life. Widely considered as the magician of hockey, the man had scored around 1000 goals in his active career which is a record

Dhyan Chand was born on 29th August 1905, in the city of "Sangam" - Allahabad to a British Indian Army employee Sameshwar Dutt Singh and Sharadha Singh. Dhyan Singh was drawn towards hockey at a very early age and thus he was selected in the Indian Army hockey team for New Zealand tour in 1926. Dhyan Chand left everyone spell-bound with his eyecatching performance, dominating 18 matches out of 21 with his team. In 1928, he earned gold for the nation at the Olympic event, held in Amsterdam. Dhyan Chand's speed and accuracy made him earn the title of "The Wizard" of hockey. He was so accurate and perfect in hockey that he could even sense if
