Definitions

Make-Up Re-Appeal Examinations:

These examinations provide an opportunity to currently registered students who appeared in the immediately preceding examinations but could not earn the required credits, or who could not appear in such examinations due to any reason, to earn the pending credits within two months of declaration of the result.

*Special Re-Appeal Examinations:

These examinations provide an opportunity to students to earn the remaining credits pertaining to previous semesters. Such examinations shall ordinarily be conducted only for final-year students and/or students who have completed the prescribed duration of their programme. Any case not falling under the Make-Up or Re-Appear categories may be permitted with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

Re-Appear Examinations:

These examinations provide an opportunity to students to earn pending credits of a semester during their prescribed period of study and shall ordinarily be conducted along with the regular End-Term Examinations of the Odd and Even Semesters.

All Deans, Heads of Departments, Programme Coordinators, faculty members, examination coordinators and other concerned officials are required to strictly adhere to the above timelines and ensure timely completion of all examination-related activities.

The Controller of Examinations shall coordinate, monitor and ensure implementation of the Examination Calendar. Any deviation from the notified schedule, wherever necessitated due to unavoidable circumstances, shall be made only with the approval of the Competent Authority.

This Office Order shall come into force with immediate effect and shall be circulated among all concerned for information, compliance and necessary action.
