Brief Report:-

The School of Agricultural Sciences, KRMU, organized a Training session on “Code of Conduct” for students of Agriculture at K.R. Mangalam University, Gurgaon on 27th August, 2024. The training aimed to provide our students with a comprehensive understanding of the university's code of conduct, ensuring they are well-informed about the expectations and responsibilities that come with being a part of our academic community. This initiative is particularly important for new students as it will set the foundation for a respectful, disciplined, and productive academic journey.

The objectives of this session

- To provide a clear understanding of the rules, regulations, and standards of behaviour expected from students at KRMU.
- To instill a sense of responsibility among students to conduct themselves with integrity and professionalism both within and outside the university campus.
- To highlight the significance of maintaining a safe and secure environment on campus by adhering to the university's rules and guidelines.
- To ensure students are aware of the consequences of misconduct and the importance of adhering to university policies.

The training session was started with a warm welcome of all the students of SOAS, KRMU by Dr. Anjali Tomar, she started her presentation by giving a brief introduction of K.R. Mangalam University and School of Agricultural Sciences to all the students, later she provided information about what code of conduct is, and how university is expecting from all of its students to maintain it. Further, in the event Dr. Parita gave presentation describing various written code of conduct of KRMU, she asked students to must adhere to the university's rules and regulations and maintain a high standard of discipline, showing respect to faculty, staff, and fellow students, ensuring a harmonious campus environment, be regular in all academic activities and to maintain cleanliness in campus and adhere to a professional dress code. Dr. Parita highlighted the strict prohibition of tobacco, drugs, alcohol, and unauthorized access to campus facilities and the consequences of violating the Code of Conduct.

Event Highlights:

- Interactive Discussions: Students engaged in discussions and asked questions about the various aspects of the Code of Conduct, seeking clarity on specific points.
- Real-Life Scenarios: Dr. Parita provided examples of past incidents and how they were handled under the Code of Conduct, helping students relate the rules to real-life situations.
- Commitment to Adherence: At the end of the session, students expressed their commitment to adhering to the Code of Conduct and upholding the values of the institution.

Learning Outcomes from Students' Perspective:

- Clear Understanding of Expectations: Students gained a thorough understanding of the university's expectations regarding their behavior and conduct.
- Awareness of Consequences: They became aware of the serious consequences of violating the Code of Conduct and the importance of maintaining discipline.
- Preparedness for Academic Life: The session prepared students to navigate their academic journey with integrity and professionalism.

Significance of the Event:

- This training session was crucial in setting the tone for the students' conduct throughout their time at the university. By understanding and committing to the Code of Conduct, students are better equipped to contribute positively to the campus community and their own academic success.

Conclusion:

The training session on the Code of Conduct was a significant step in guiding new students toward a successful and disciplined academic life at KRMU. The clear and comprehensive presentation by Dr. Parita, Dr. Anjali Tomar and Dr. Deepak Loura ensured that students are well-informed and ready to contribute positively to the university community.
