On 3rd February 2025, the School of Hotel Management and Catering Technology at K.R. Mangalam University, Gurugram, organized an insightful session with one of their esteemed alumni, Ms. Mehak. During the session, Ms. Mehak shared her valuable experiences and provided guidance to current students about the various career opportunities available to them beyond traditional hotel roles.

Ms. Mehak emphasized that while the hospitality industry, especially hotels, remains a core focus for many students in this field, there are numerous other exciting career paths they could explore. She highlighted roles in event management, travel and tourism, cruise lines, food and beverage consulting, and even roles in corporate settings related to customer service and management.

SDG 4: Quality Education and SDG 8: Decent Work and Economic Growth are closely interconnected, as quality education equips individuals with the skills and knowledge necessary for meaningful employment, while sustainable economic growth creates job opportunities that promote fair wages, safe working conditions, and career advancement. Together, they aim to build an inclusive, equitable future where everyone has access to education and decent work, fostering personal and professional development while contributing to a thriving, resilient economy.

Objective: The objective of the alumni session was to expose students to diverse career opportunities beyond traditional hotel roles, share valuable insights from alumni experiences, encourage innovative thinking and adaptability, and highlight the importance of continuous learning for career growth.

Methodology: The session was conducted through an engaging presentation, where Ms. Mehak shared about the job opportunities for students.

Outcome: The outcome of the session was that students gained a broader understanding of the various career opportunities available in the hospitality industry and beyond, including event management, tourism, and corporate roles. They were inspired by Ms. Mehak's personal experiences, which motivated them to think creatively about their career paths and embrace adaptability. The session also helped students recognize the importance of continuous learning and skill development for long-term career success. Additionally, it fostered a greater sense of confidence and preparedness as students were encouraged to explore diverse professional avenues.
