School of Legal Studies in collaboration with Central Library K.R. Mangalam University has organized a "Quality Assurance Workshop on SCC Online on 10th February, 2025, in Block A, Room No. A 213. The resource person for the workshop was Mr. Rajesh Raina. The resource person for the workshop aimed to enhance students' understanding of the SCC Online legal research platform, ensuring they develop the necessary skills for efficient and accurate legal research.

The primary objective of the workshop was to familiarize students with the features and functionalities of SCC Online, enabling them to navigate and utilize the platform effectively. The workshop will help improve their research efficiency in retrieving legal cases, judgments, and statutes, ensuring a streamlined and systematic approach to legal research. Additionally, the focus was on maintaining quality assurance by encouraging students to rely on authentic and credible sources for their research. The initiative also aims to address common challenges faced by students while using SCC Online, providing them with practical solutions to enhance their user experience. Furthermore, it seeks to bridge the gap between traditional legal research methodologies and modern digital tools, equipping students with the necessary skills to adapt to evolving research techniques. Lastly, the program was designed to enhance students' analytical abilities, enabling them to interpret case laws and legal documents with greater accuracy and efficiency.

The workshop commenced with an introduction to SCC Online by the resource person, who elaborated on the importance of digital legal research. The key highlights of the workshop included:

- A step-by-step demonstration of SCC Online's search tools, including filters, citation searches, and advanced search techniques.
- Hands-on practice sessions for students to navigate through various legal documents such as case laws, judgments, and commentaries.
- Techniques to ensure accuracy and reliability of legal information by cross-referencing multiple legal sources.
- An in-depth discussion on common errors encountered during online legal research and strategies to avoid them.
- A segment on the role of technology in modern legal research and how students can leverage SCC Online for academic and professional growth.
- Live demonstrations on using SCC Online's bookmarking and annotation features for efficient legal research management.

The workshop witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, who actively engaged in interactive exercises and Question and Answer sessions. Many students shared their experiences and challenges regarding online legal research, which were effectively addressed by the facilitator. The interactive exercises allowed students to apply the knowledge gained and refine their research techniques

The workshop was highly informative and cleared doubts of students regarding the SCC online and the important role of SCC online in legal research. The student got to know many features of SCC Online which will enhance their knowledge in law. The event underscored the importance of continuous learning and adaptability in the evolving landscape of legal research.
