Report on Creative Freedom through Art and Craft Competition

and celebration of Independence Day

Date: 14th August 2024

Venue: A213, A Block

Event Type: Art and Craft Competition

Mode of Activity: Offline

Target Group: NSS volunteers

Coordinators: Dr. Neeraj Kumari

Organized by: NSS, K R Mangalam University, Gurugram

Participants during event: 19 NSS volunteers

Introduction:

Har Ghar Tiranga' is a campaign that started under the aegis of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav to encourage people to bring the Tiranga home and to hoist it to mark India's independence. The competition focused on themes related to Independence Day, such as the national flag, freedom fighters, and India's cultural heritage. Children showcased their creativity through drawings and paintings. In celebration of the 78th Independence Day, the National Service Scheme (NSS) K. R. Mangalam University organized Creative Freedom through Art and Craft Competition and celebration of Independence Day, the patriotic events under the "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign on 14th August 2024 at KRMU campus.

Objective

The primary objectives of the "Creative Freedom through Art and Craft" competition and Independence Day celebration were:

- To foster a sense of national pride and patriotism among students.
- To provide a platform for students to express their ideas and emotions related to freedom, independence, and national identity through creative mediums.

Content:

The competition was divided into various categories such as painting, drawing, sculpture, and craftwork. Participants were asked to create works based on the theme of "Creative Freedom," interpreting what independence and freedom mean to them. The time for completion of the task was one hour. The criteria to evaluate the art were based on the creativity, timing and expression and explanation of their art. The creative works displayed a deep understanding and appreciation of the concept of freedom and independence. In the last, Dr. Neeraj explained the motive of Har Ghar Tiranga and celebration of Independence Day

Conclusions:

All the volunteers expressed their creativity through drawings and paintings, demonstrating a profound understanding and appreciation of the concepts of freedom and independence. Ms. Akriti Bansal achieved first place, followed by Aayushi Kesari in second place, and Sneha Pramanik in third.

Event outcomes:

Through their creative expressions, students gained a better understanding of the historical and contemporary significance of independence. The event also provided an opportunity for them to engage with India's rich cultural heritage.

Photo 1: NSS volunteer during art and craft competition

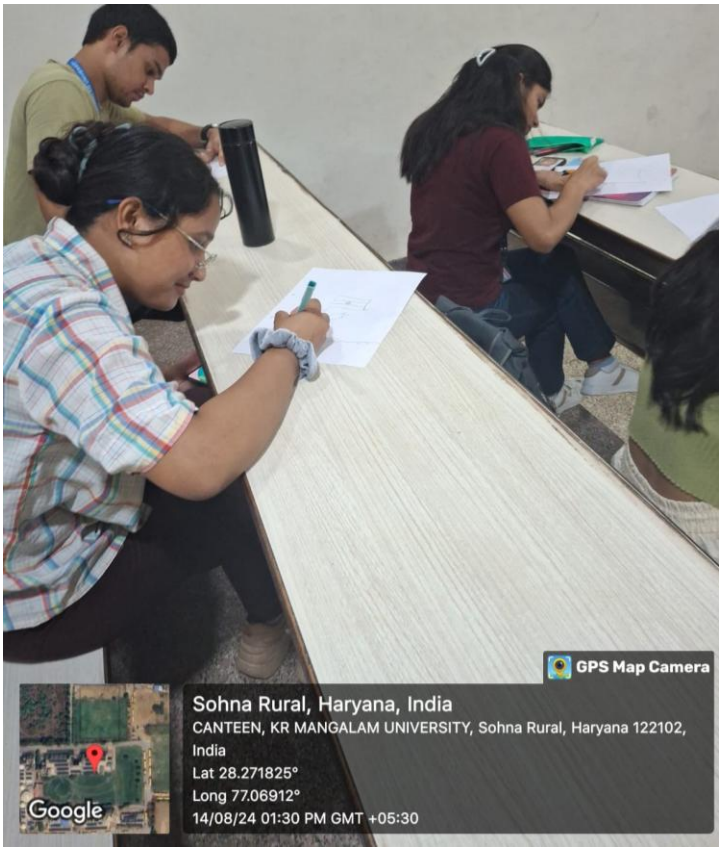

Photo 2: NSS volunteers during the competition

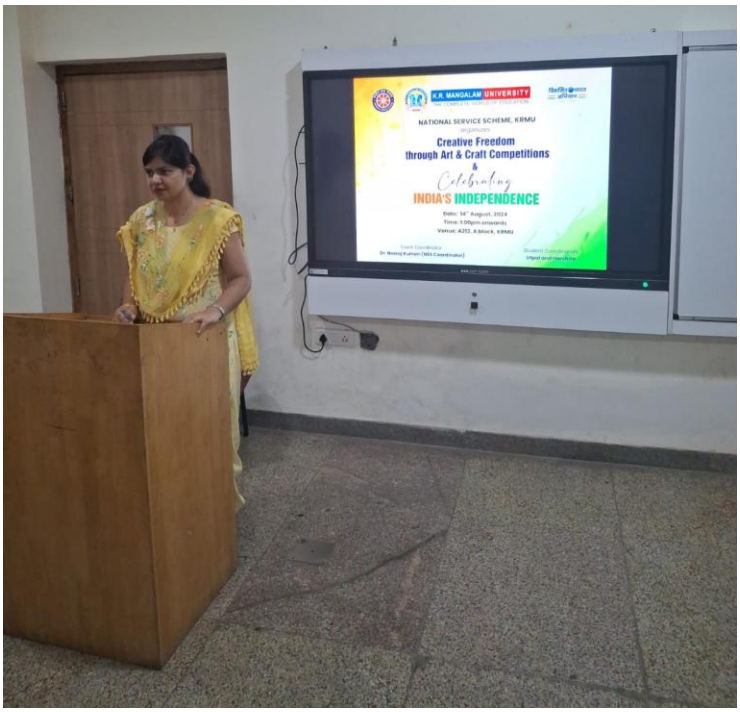

Photo 3: Dr Neeraj explaining the importance of celebration of Independence Day

Photo 4: A group photograph with all NSS volunteers