The School of Journalism and Mass Communication at K.R. Mangalam University successfully organized a Poster Making Competition on Gender Equality on 21st February 2025. The event, held in Room No. C 104, commenced at 10:00 AM and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across the university. The primary aim of this competition was to spread awareness about gender equality and provide students with a platform to express their creativity and thoughts on this vital social issue.

The competition was judged by Ms. Varsha Verma and Dr. Nudrat Jahan, who assessed the posters based on creativity, message clarity, artistic presentation, and relevance to the theme. The participants showcased their talent through thought-provoking and visually compelling posters that depicted various aspects of gender equality, including women's empowerment, equal opportunities, and breaking gender stereotypes.

The event coordinators, Dr. Aaqib Anwaar Butt and Mr. Karan Singh, ensured the smooth execution of the competition. The participants exhibited remarkable artistic skills and conveyed powerful messages through their posters, making it a truly inspiring event.

The winners were announced at the end of the competition, and the best posters were awarded certificates and prizes. The judges commended the participants for their efforts and creativity, emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in fostering discussions on gender equality.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the organizers, appreciating the students' active participation and the judges' valuable insights. Overall, the Poster Making Competition proved to be a successful and impactful event, reinforcing the significance of gender equality and encouraging students to become advocates for social change.
