Introduction

The School of Education aspires to become an internationally recognized department through excellence in the interdisciplinary arena of education, research and innovation, preparing socially responsible lifelong learners contributing to nation building. Since 2016 the School of Education strives to foster and maintain a creative environment with a deep commitment to inculcate excellence in academics and contribute towards students' development. The school brings an attitudinal change in prospective teachers for their advancement into accountable agents of change in the society, who are sensitive to local, national, and global concerns and issues vital for human survival, progress, and development. The School of Education offers diverse programs of studies that are designed to develop an insight into the nuances of teaching and learning in terms of theoretical perspectives, pedagogical techniques that facilitates the students' understanding of social, emotional, and intellectual ecosystem. Some of the best practices of SOED are blended learning, collaborative learning, integrated learning and experiential learning.

Objectives

1. To enhance awareness of intellectual property rights (IPR) among creators, innovators, and professionals.
2. To provide a foundational understanding of the types and significance of intellectual property (IP) in fostering innovation.
3. To discuss the legal frameworks, registration processes, and enforcement mechanisms of IPR.

Methodology:

1. Interactive Sessions: Expert-led presentations covering IPR fundamentals, frameworks, and practices.
2. Q & A Panel: Opportunity for participants to seek clarification and insights from IPR expert and practitioner.

Outcomes

1. Increased knowledge of the types, importance, and processes of IPR among participants.
2. Enhanced ability to identify and protect intellectual creations.

Conclusion

The one-day workshop on "Empowering Creators: A Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights" proved to be a highly informative and engaging session for the student-teachers of the School of Education, K.R. Mangalam University. With the insightful expertise of Dr. Narender Yadav, participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the significance of intellectual property rights (IPR) in fostering innovation and protecting creative endeavors.

The interactive sessions and Q & A discussions enabled attendees to clarify doubts, explore real-world applications of IPR, and grasp the legal frameworks associated with intellectual property. The workshop successfully achieved its objectives by enhancing awareness of IPR, equipping
