Introduction

School of Humanities, K. R. Mangalam University, organized the Alumni Interaction Session for the SOHS students on 26th October 2023. For the event an alumni of SOHS was invited as the guest speaker to interact and share her experience with students.

Objective

The purpose of the event was to help the students to interact with the alumni for academic excellence and also, recognize the contribution of their alumni in the professional world.

Methodology

Event coordinators Dr. Nandini Biswas, Department of Psychology, Dr. Shivani Wadhwa, Department of English, and Mr. Rajiv, Department of Foreign Languages; the faculty of School of Humanities, introduced the event along with the vision of school of Humanities to the students.

Content

An alumni interaction session was conducted by SOHS for its students on 26th October 2023. Ms. Stuti Sharma, an erstwhile student of the department of Psychology, SOHS, was the speaker for this event.

Ms. Sharma is currently a Research Assistant at the Risk and Resilience Lab, Penn State University. The speaker spoke of her journey as a budding researcher, and shared her insights on pursuing exciting research opportunities in the US and India. She extolled her alma mater KRMU's role in shaping her career.

Outcome

The lecture was followed by a lively question and answer session where the students got insights of her various career options and opportunities.

Conclusion

Such events help the students to connect with the alumni and the faculty to develop better understanding of their own interests and capabilities.

Further Scope

In future, more events like this should be organised based on the experience of students, administration, and the faculty.
