The School of Legal Studies organized a on Competitive Exams Preparation: Judiciary Strategy and Tips. The objective of this session was to make the students aware about the strategies on how to prepare for competitive examinations especially in context of judicial services for different states. During the session there was an in-depth analysis on preparation for various states. The students provided tips on how to prepare for prelims and mains examinations.

The session was conducted physically and it was an interactive session with all the students. The resource person discussed the frequent mistakes which the students commit while preparing for competitive exams. Students were clarified on a lot of queries especially in context on how to approach the primary sources of law such as bare acts, judgments and how to deal with the vast syllabus.

The outcome of the event was that events on similar themes should be conducted at regular intervals. The students specifically requested to have sessions on other competitive examinations such as UPSC, CLAT and UGC- NET exams with a particular focus on answer writing for competitive exams. The students were also given a hands on training in which they were questions which they had to solve as to check their knowledge and understanding.
