Objectives of Event:

The Street Play was presented by the students of BSc Forensic Science and volunteer of Red Cross Society KRMU. The play was enacted in university campus on 4th and in Lakhwas village (Sohna – 122103) on 5th April 2024. The objective of this play was to create awareness about the online frauds that are happening in day-to-day activities while doing online shopping, money transactions, KYC upgradation, etc. The total of 25 students took the part in the play. This visit exposed our students to the local community. After the play the students also interacted with locals to answer their questions regarding the topic in creating awareness on cyber and mobile phone frauds. The act of 3-4 minutes which was performed at four different places of the village. Our students got an opportunity to share their knowledge and show their talents. The crowd gathering was also done by our students with the help of Mr. Mohammed Tufail G. who works as a project coordinator in the village. Overall, the experience of the whole event will help them to have a better disposition in future. The success of the event was not possible without the help from our department and School of Basic and Applied Sciences for giving us time for practice and University management who arranged the food, transportation and banner for our event on time.
