
ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

MIDDLESEX UNIVERSITY and

The Institute for Inventions, Innovation & Entrepreneurship, KRMU

NAME OF PROGRAMME: BSc Hons Computer Science

START DATE OF AGREEMENT: AUGUST 2019

REVIEW DATE: AUGUST 2024

This Articulation Agreement records an agreement between Middlesex University, London, UK (hereinafter referred to as Middlesex) and The Institute for Inventions, Innovation & Entrepreneurship, KRMU (hereinafter referred to as KRMU) concerning the progression of its students (hereinafter referred to as the students) to University programmes.

1. Conditions of the Agreement: Faculty of Science and Technology

- a) On successful completion of BSc Hons Innovation, IT & Entrepreneurship year 1 at KRMU, Middlesex will offer students entry onto the Middlesex programme detailed in b) below, subject to availability of places.
- b) BSc Hons Computer Science.
- c) The entry point for students shall be year 2, level 5 (according to Framework for Higher Education Qualifications in England).
- d) Students must achieve a pass profile.
- e) Students shall be accorded credit towards their Middlesex programme in b) above as follows: 120 credits, year 1, level 4 pre-accreditation (according to Framework for Higher Education Qualifications in England).
- f) In addition to the successful completion of the programme outlined in a) above, Middlesex requires compliance with the University's English Language requirements as specified in the Programme entry requirements. These may be seen in the table published on the University website at:
<http://www.mdx.ac.uk/courses/help-with-your-application/undergraduate-application/english-language-requirements>
In general, GCSE grade C, CEF level C1, IELTS 6.0 or the equivalent as listed in the table, is the minimum requirement for Undergraduate study. For Postgraduate study, CEF level C1 / C2 or IELTS 6.5 / 7.0 is required. Minimum requirements apply to each component of tests.

2. Responsibilities of Middlesex

- a) Application forms must be prepared by the student and submitted at least 3 months prior to the expected date of transfer to Middlesex.
- b) Applications to Middlesex shall be processed by Middlesex's (REGIONAL OFFICE or ADMISSIONS OFFICE) (Administrative Annexe (2)).
- c) Students wishing to enrol for Programmes at Middlesex other than those listed in this agreement are welcome to apply. Such applications will be considered on an individual basis.
- d) This agreement is based on the current curriculum offered by Middlesex. Middlesex will inform KRMU about any changes to its programmes relevant to the consequences of this agreement.
- e) In the event of KRMU ceasing to trade, Middlesex University will continue to accept students that have completed their studies and have met the conditions of entry specified in this Articulation Agreement.

3. Responsibilities of KRMU

- a) KRMU shall ensure that its portfolio of courses has all the necessary Government licences to operate and that any terms or conditions required are met in full.
- b) KRMU shall provide Middlesex's (REGIONAL OFFICE/ADMISSIONS OFFICE) with a full transcript of results for all students applying to the University as soon as results are confirmed.
- c) This agreement is based on the current curriculum offered by KRMU. Any changes made by KRMU shall be notified to Middlesex in advance of implementation of the changes – revisions to this agreement may be required in such circumstances and this agreement will not be effective until such a review has taken place and any necessary changes to the agreement have been added as an appendix. Additional studies may be required if the pre-accreditation is no longer fully appropriate to the revised programme.
- d) If changes occur without notification, this agreement will not apply to any student taking the changed curriculum. KRMU is responsible for informing their students about any changes and their consequences for this agreement.
- e) KRMU shall inform the University immediately of any change of ownership or governance at the Partner Institution. The University reserves the right to re-negotiate any collaborative agreement if there is a change of ownership or governance of the Partner Institution.

4. Joint Responsibilities

- a) KRMU shall provide Middlesex with regular opportunities to meet with its students to brief them about the University and also to advise students on application procedure and strategy. These briefing sessions will normally be agreed with the University's Regional Office. Similarly, Middlesex welcomes visits from representatives of KRMU to meet with staff and students.
- b) KRMU undertakes to submit any advertising material, related to Middlesex, to the Regional Director for approval and will not publish any advertising materials referring to the agreement which have not been approved. Likewise, Middlesex shall seek prior approval from KRMU before publishing any publicity material which refers to them.
- c) Should any extraordinary costs be incurred by Middlesex as a result of implementing this agreement, these will be discussed with KRMU and specified accordingly.
- d) Any amendments to this agreement that should subsequently become necessary, are subject to negotiation between the two parties.
- e) Any amendments to this agreement, other than those to named contacts, that should subsequently become necessary are subject to negotiation between the two parties. Should agreement be reached then the revised articulation agreement will replace the existing agreement regardless of whether it had reached the end of the agreement period.

5. Status of This Agreement

- a) This agreement shall be reviewed during the 2023/24 academic year and thereafter at 6 year intervals or less should this be requested by either party.
- b) This agreement may be terminated by either party by giving a minimum of 12 months' notice in writing. Such termination shall be subject to arrangements to be agreed between Middlesex and KRMU which ensure that students are not disadvantaged.
- c) Both parties will seek to resolve any dispute by negotiation and correspondence, which if necessary, will involve senior representatives of both parties. In the event that a dispute cannot be so resolved, the parties agree to attempt to resolve the matter through a formal mediation.
- d) In the event that the matter cannot be resolved by negotiation or mediation as set out above, the parties agree to resolve the matter by arbitration within the meaning of the UK Arbitration Act 1996, by which arbitration they will be bound.
