FROM THE EDITORS' DESK

Significant aspects of the school bulletin include contributions from the current batch of students, alumni, and professors under the categories of literary essays, articles, recent case studies analysis and events. We believe that each SOLS student possesses a unique capability and mental process.

Dear Readers,

As we deliver this quarterly newsletter, I am thrilled with pride for our school's great achievements and progress. This quarterly edition focuses on the lively academic and research activities that define our dedication to excellence. From pioneering research endeavors to innovative instructional approaches, we continue to push the envelope and set new benchmarks. SOLS's ideology encourages students and faculty to demonstrate their talents and knowledge outside of the confines of curriculum and pedagogy. Significant aspects of the school bulletin include contributions from the current batch of students, alumni, and professors under the categories of literary essays, articles, recent case studies analysis and events. We believe that each SOLS student possesses a unique capability and mental process. This is evident in how they demonstrated their talent and ideas in the domain they chose for themselves.

Happy Reading!

FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

“Law is not just a career—it is a calling, one that carries significant ethical and social obligations”

We strive to ensure that our students are equipped with the tools to represent a wide array of clients and causes with integrity and empathy, while upholding the highest standards of the legal profession.

As the Dean of School of Legal Studies, I am honored to lead an institution that has long been dedicated to shaping the future of the legal profession. Our vision for the future is one rooted in excellence, inclusivity, and innovation—values that are integral to both our academic environment and the impact we seek to make in the broader community.

At our Law School, we aim to foster a community where diversity of thought, background, and experience is not only valued but celebrated. In today's globalized society, understanding different perspectives is essential to effective legal advocacy and problem-solving. We strive to ensure that our students are equipped with the tools to represent a wide array of clients and causes with integrity and empathy, while upholding the highest standards of the legal profession. Our vision is to create a transformative learning environment where students develop the intellectual, practical, and moral skills necessary to navigate the challenges of modern legal practice.

Our curriculum blends the timeless principles of law with innovative approaches to contemporary issues. From constitutional law to international human rights, from environmental policy to emerging fields like technology law, we prepare our students to become leaders in a rapidly evolving legal landscape. Through hands-on learning opportunities, including clinics, internships, and client counselling sessions, our students engage directly with the communities they aim to serve, applying their knowledge in real-world contexts.

Our vision also embraces collaboration. We, at SOLS, encourage interdisciplinary study, partnerships with other academic disciplines, and close interaction with practicing attorneys, judges, and policymakers. This collaborative approach ensures that our students graduate with the ability to engage effectively in a wide range of legal fields, and that they are prepared to tackle the multifaceted issues facing society today.

School of Legal Studies is committed to being a place where students are empowered to excel, where diversity and inclusion are celebrated, and where the pursuit of justice is at the heart of everything we do.

MESSAGE FROM CHAIR PROFESSOR (MOTILAL NEHRU)

As the School of Legal Studies is going to launch this inaugural issue, of Lex Patrika, I take the liberty to invite our readers, to engage with the content, contribute to the ongoing dialogue, and provide feedback. Your participation is crucial to the success and growth of the News Letter. We hope that this Lex Patrika, will serve as a valuable resource and a source of inspiration for all those interested in the field of dynamic law.

I am pleased to write a message for the 'Lex Patrika' Newsletter, which is published by the School of Legal Studies. Lex Patrika provides a dynamic forum for the students, scholars and the faculty to share their research inputs, literary insights, academic achievements, and the school activities.

Lex Patrika aims to provide a platform for scholars, practitioners, and students to share their insights, research, and analyses on a wide range of legal topics. It is a publication dedicated to exploring the dynamic and evolving field of law. The genesis of the publication stems from a shared vision to foster intellectual discourse and contribute to the development of legal scholarship. In this first issue, there is a collection of articles that reflect the diversity and depth of contemporary legal issues. From thought-provoking discussions on constitutional law to innovative analyses of emerging legal trends, the contributors have demonstrated exceptional scholarly vigor and intellectual creativity. Lex Patrika, further allows our stakeholders, notably alumni, to stay in touch with us and contribute their thoughts and accomplishments, enriching our community through their experiences. This connects not only strengthen our network of alumni but also motivates our current students by highlighting the various paths that our graduates need to adopt.

As the School of Legal Studies is going to launch this inaugural issue, of Lex Patrika, I take the liberty to invite our readers, to engage with the content, contribute to the ongoing dialogue, and provide feedback. Your participation is crucial to the success and growth of the News Letter. We hope that this Lex Patrika, will serve as a valuable resource and a source of inspiration for all those interested in the field of dynamic law.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our authors, whose dedication and hard work have made this publication possible. My appreciation goes to the entire School of Legal Studies and the editorial team, whose commitment and meticulous attention have been instrumental in bringing this News Letter, Lex Patrika. (January to June 2024.)

I look forward News Letter 'Lex Patrika' a grand success with a tremendous impact on new generation of lawyers.

Thank you all and wish you all the best!

आज छुनोटियों से घबराएगा तो कल कैसे उभर पायेगा अगर आज डर जायेगा तो कल कैसे जीत पायेगा।
हार का डर तेरा तुझे जीत से दूर लाएगा लेकिन अगर डर को हराएगा तोह तू जीत जायेगा।
मुश्किलें न आये ऐसा न हो पायेगा अगर मुश्किलों से घबरायेगा तो उससे निकल कैसे पायेगा।
जब करेगा सामना परिश्रमियों का तब अपने गंतव्य को पायेगा अपनी नजरों में ही उठ जायेगा करेंगे सम्मान सब तेरा तू सबको भायेगा बस ऐसे ही आगे बढ़ता जा तेरा कल तुझे अपनायेगा।

Radiance in Brokenness

Even broken, the moon will gleam,
Rising each night with a radiant beam.
Through shadows deep, it finds its way,
A quiet strength, no words can sway.
Though cracks may show, it doesn't fall,
Its light persists, inspiring all.
A timeless guide in the darkened skies,
Proof that beauty in brokenness lies.
So wear your scars, let them proclaim,
Even in pieces, you'll rise again.

मेरी माँ

घुटनों पर रेंगते-रेंगते
कब पैरों पर खड़ी हुई
माँ तेरी बाहों में
जाने कब मैं बड़ी हुई
सही-गलत में अंतर बताया
माँ तुझसे ही तो
हर हिम्मत है पाया
अपनी जरूरतों के आगे
मेरी जरूरतों को रखा
माँ तूने मेरे लिए क्या कुछ है नहीं किया
हर परेशानियाँ भी तुझसे डरती हैं
माँ तू ही तो मेरे हर समस्याओं की हल है
छोटी-बड़ी हर गलतियों को माफ किया
माँ तुझ जितना प्यार आज तक
किसी ने नहीं किया
दुनिया भर की उमंग तेरे आगे कम है,
माँ तू है तो हम है।

"The 'look at the moon' person"

I find comfort in moon
The kind of comfort which humans can't offer,
They say, sometimes 'home' is a person But to me,
It has always been the 'moon'.
The one which never asked me questions, The one which didn't beg for the answers, The one which makes my heart race
Yet makes me so calm.
In the midst of the night When all is still
I long for moon My heart does fill
With the bitter-sweet memories And the unsaid stories, Which no one
But the moon listens to. In most ways, Humans can't understand, what moon does. I know, I'd pick moon over The sun, The stars, And the humans Every single day.

OUR ALUMNI

Dipika Yadav (2018-2023)
BALL.B (Hons).

Greetings!

As a proud alumna of K.R. Mangalam University, School of Legal Studies From completing my BALL.B (Hons). (2018–2023) to pursuing my LL.M. (2023-2024) these years have been instrumental in shaping my legal acumen and personal growth. The faculty's unwavering support, the vibrant learning environment, and the opportunities provided by the university have been instrumental in shaping my career and personal growth. My years at K.R. Mangalam were not just about academics; they were about building lifelong connections, discovering my passions, and preparing myself to contribute meaningfully to the legal profession. I am honored to be part of this prestigious institution's legacy and to carry forward the values instilled in me. To my fellow alumni and current students, let us continue to inspire one another, uphold the spirit of excellence, and contribute towards making a positive impact in the legal field.

Mehroon Nisha
LL. B (Hons). (2020-2023)

Greetings!

KR Mangalam University law program was exceptional. The faculty's dedication and expertise created a stimulating learning environment. The curriculum effectively blended theoretical knowledge with practical application, preparing me for the real world of law. I particularly valued the focus on research and moot court, which significantly enhanced my analytical and advocacy skills. The university's modern infrastructure and resources further contributed to a positive learning experience. Beyond academics, the supportive community and diverse student body fostered personal and professional growth. KR Mangalam University provided a strong foundation for my legal career, and I'm proud to be an alumnus.
