ABOUT SOCIAL CONNECT

To be successful, a person must develop holistically involving his head, heart, and hand, i.e., the three domains of learning: cognitive, affective, and psychomotor skills. Keeping this in mind, KRMU chose two broad purposes of Education to be relevant and useful to the student community and society at large.

PURPOSE

1. Making them learn to earn a living
2. Making them learn to live.

To meet the defined purpose, we focused our efforts on community connection. This means why, what, and how we do things is derived from the purpose, and the purpose of education became our guiding principles. Our education activities, operations, and actions are driven and aligned with the purpose.

OBJECTIVE

Holistic Sustainable learning through social connect in the five adopted villages. ## CHHAVI KAUSHIK

Over the past 2 years, my involvement in the National Service Scheme (NSS) has been an enriching and fulfilling journey marked by numerous achievements and personal growth. The journey began with a commitment to serve society, and along the way, I've been honoured to receive several appreciation awards and the prestigious Leadership Award for my contributions

HARSH SHARMA

Serving as a volunteer in the National Service Scheme (NSS) and now leading it as Vice President has been an incredibly enriching journey. This experience has significantly shaped me, honing my leadership and coordination skills through activities like task delegation, volunteer management, and team direction. I am honored to have received the "Best Male Volunteer" award for my contributions. My participation in NIC, university-level special camps, adventure camps, blood donation drives, women empowerment programs, and awareness campaigns has reinforced the value of dedicating time to social work in building a strong community.

AAKRITI BANSAL

I joined NSS during my first year of college. I've always been interested in engaging in community work and NSS providing me the exact same thing was cherry on top. It has played a part in my character development, and I'll always be grateful to KRMU for giving me this opportunity and the heartwarming welcome NSS community gave me. We organised many impactful events such as a First aid session, interacting with children and adults, knowing about their life was surely a turning point in my thoughts.

UTPAL ANAND

I joined NSS in my 1st year of B. Tech. I have been working as a volunteer with the National Service Scheme (NSS) for the past last one year, I've had a transformative experience engaging in various activities aimed at community development and social service. My first activity was a visit to the NGO 'Earth Saviour Foundation', during this activity we got to know about the poor and unhealthy people and talked with them and about their problems. This changed my thought and from that time I made a promise to myself that I would help the people.

VAIBHAV VAID

As a member of the NSS, my journey has been profoundly enriching, both as a student and a community participant. Engaging in various events such as nukkad natak, awareness campaigns on menstrual cycles, blood donation camps, visits to the elderly, and Swachh Bharat Abhiyan has not only broadened my perspective but also instilled a deep sense of responsibility towards society. Participating in these initiatives has allowed me to witness firsthand the impact of collective action in addressing societal issues.

MUSKAN

Upon reflecting on my enriching two-year engagement with the National Service Scheme (NSS), Muskan is overwhelmed with gratitude for the abundant opportunities that have allowed me to serve my community, evolve personally, and collaboratively make a significant impact with my dedicated fellow volunteers. Ranging from tree planting campaigns to health outreach programs, immersive NSS experiences, and blood donation campaigns, each endeavour has contributed substantially to my journey of both individual growth and communal betterment
