Introduction

On the occasion of Ambedkar Jayanti, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of K.R. Mangalam University organized a Nukkad Natak (Street Play) on the theme “Caste Equality and Social Reform” on 13th April 2026 at Abheypur Village, Sohna. The event aimed to spread awareness about social equality, eradicate caste-based discrimination, and promote the values of justice, dignity, and inclusivity as envisioned by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar.

This activity aligns strongly with Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 10: Reduced Inequalities, as it directly addresses caste-based discrimination and promotes equal opportunities, dignity, and social inclusion for all sections of society. It also connects with SDG 16: Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions, as Dr. B.R. Ambedkar’s vision emphasized justice, equality, human rights, and building an inclusive society free from discrimination.

Objectives

- To raise awareness about caste discrimination and its impact on society
- To promote equality, social justice, and human dignity
- To educate the rural community about constitutional rights
- To encourage youth participation in social reform activities

K.R. MANGALAM UNIVERSITY
THE COMPLETE WORLD OF EDUCATION

- To spread Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's vision of an inclusive society

Content of the Event

The event began with the gathering of NSS volunteers and local villagers at the venue. The volunteers performed a powerful and engaging Nukkad Natak, portraying real-life situations highlighting caste-based discrimination and its harmful consequences.

Through impactful dialogues, emotional expressions, and relatable storytelling, the volunteers conveyed strong messages about unity, equality, and respect for all individuals irrespective of caste.

The performance emphasized:

- The importance of education in eliminating social discrimination
- Equal opportunities for all sections of society
- The role of youth in bringing social change

The audience actively engaged with the performance, and many villagers expressed their thoughts and appreciation for the initiative. The event successfully created awareness and encouraged reflection among the community.

Conclusion

The Nukkad Natak proved to be an effective medium of communication in spreading awareness about caste equality and social reform. The initiative successfully sensitized the local community and inspired them to adopt inclusive and progressive values.

The event concluded with a message encouraging everyone to uphold equality and work collectively towards a just society.

Event Outcome

- Increased awareness among villagers about caste equality and social justice
- Strengthening community engagement through interactive performance
- Enhanced communication and teamwork skills among NSS volunteers
- Promote the values of equality and constitutional rights
- Encouraged social responsibility among youth
